My child was excited by the topics covered (mysteries).
My child enjoyed the activities done during the week.
My child was appropriately challenged during the AIG camp.
My child left each day learning new information and acquiring new skills.
I believe enough information was provided to me during the camp application process.
I believe enough information was provided to me during the camp week.
My child's final project was a good culminating activity for the week.
My child was comfortable working with the teachers in charge of the camp.
My child was comfortable working with the ECU students involved in this camp.
I would recommend this program to other parents and families next year.
