Library and Information Science Job Sites

The following are URLs to various web sites that list specific library and information science/studies related vacancies as well as career education resources. Since the Internet is an ever changing source of information, some of the following sites may no longer be active. Try a Google search by the site name if the URL is not longer active. Some sites will no longer be available.

100+ Job Resources for Librarians. http://www.collegeathome.com/blog/2008/06/04/100-job-resources-for-librarians
Links to a wide variety of online resources on general and specific types of library openings.

Academic Careers Online http://www.academiccareers.com
Global academic job site listing teaching, education, research and professional jobs in academia. Must register to access the positions.

ALA JobLIST. http://www.joblist.ala.org
American Library Association's web site of academic, public, and school library job listings as well as other resources for job seekers including links to how to write cover letters, assess strengths, hone interviewing skills, and other job related topics.

Focuses on information science and technology positions, some of which are in the library environment, but many are in the private or government sector. Members have access to additional career materials.

Art curator and library positions as well as other career resources including live-time chats on related topics.

Asian Pacific American Librarians Association Job Announcements. http://www.apalaweb.org/jobs/apalajobs.htm
http://twitter.com/#!/ala_apala
Job postings are now made on the apala twitter account. The address of which is above.

Association of Christian Librarians Career Opportunities. http://www.acl.org/career
Positions in religious universities as well as other institutions and organizations. http://www.acl.org/index.cfm/job-openings/

Research focused position listings in academic, public, and special libraries.
Black Caucus of the American Library Association Employment.
http://www.bcala.org/resources/jobs.htm
Links to position specifics for openings in academic, public, and special libraries.

Academic position openings in LIS teaching, as well as library and non-academic organization positions.

Department of Defense Schools http://www.dodea.edu/home/
Resources on working in DOD school libraries worldwide. This site links to the www.USAJobs.gov site that lists openings in all types of positions.

Employment Resources for Librarians http://pw2.netcom.com/~feridun/nlintro.htm
Links to job sites by region, specialty area, national and state associations, some public and academic library systems, as well as private companies.

Employment Security Commission of North Carolina
http://www.ncesc1.com/individual/jobSearch/jobSearchMain.asp Includes links to a variety of topics of interest to those seeking employment in North Carolina. Links to state government positions, the UNC System, Teach 4 NC which focuses on teacher recruitment, the NC State government internship program, job fairs and much more. Includes a link to major employers in North Carolina.

Academic library positions can be accessed from the Administrative job listings link. Scroll down to locate the libraries link.

Inside Higher Education http://www.insidehighered.com/career/seekers
Job Seekers area offers an advanced search option to search by category – library positions are under the administrative category.

International Schools Services http://www.iss.edu/index.asp Includes information about education positions overseas, including a link to current openings in ISS schools, both public and private.
http://www.iss.edu/education-careers/iss-school-careers/

LibInfoSciJobs http://twitter.com/LibInfoSciJobs
Tweets on library and information science job seeking information - position openings, resumes, and Q&A about job seeking strategies.

Lists library related job openings and helpful articles on interviewing, networking, and other job related topics.
Pulls together library related position postings and the job sites they are posted on, with hot links to the sites as well as links to international library openings, especially those in the UK.

Librarianship Jobs (in the United Kingdom) http://www.jobs.ac.uk/categories/library Library positions as well as fellowship opportunities in the United Kingdom.

Vacancies listed by regions (Northeastern, South, Midwest, and Western) within the U.S. as well as international openings. Some temporary positions are included.

Searchable by type of libraries as well as location. Also includes links to state, national, and international online job sites.

Links to academic, public, and special library positions.

Positions open at the Library of Congress as well as fellowships and volunteer opportunities.

Links to library related state level, national, and international job sites.

A blog that lists library support staff positions in academic, public and special libraries.

Job seekers area has job listings as well as career development options, including a discussion forum. The link to openings by state includes additional sites for library related positions within each state.

Temporary positions in academic, public, school, and special libraries in the United Kingdom.

Medical Library Association Career Development.  http://www.mlanet.org/jobs
Medical library position listings.

Museum archivist and librarian positions worldwide and links to other museum related job sites.

Music library positions and career services including cover letter and resume review services.
http://musiclibraryassoc.org/employment.aspx?id=45

North American Serials Interest Group job listings, including acquisition and cataloging positions in academic, public, and special libraries.

NC Office of State Personnel: For Job Seekers http://www.osp.state.nc.us/jobs/
North Carolina positions an be searched by agency, university, occupation, and county.

NCPublicSchools.org
https://schooljobs.dpi.state.nc.us/hrms/HRMSHome.Nsf/879e225f1e7e3fb585256b5f005120c2?Create Document
North Carolina school library position openings. Use the term School Librarian to search.

The Networked Librarian Employment Resources for Librarians.
http://pweb.netcom.com/~feridun/specific.htm
Specific position openings as well as links to other library position sites, including job lines that can be phoned to listen to descriptions of current openings.

Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries Job Postings.
http://www.aallnet.org/chapter/seaall/jobs.htm
Law library openings in Southeastern states, including North Carolina.
http://www.aallnet.org/chapter/seaall/employment/current.html

The careers areas includes position openings and resources to assist in the job search, including virtual advisors.

State Library of North Carolina: Library Related Job Openings in North Carolina
http://statelibrary.ncdcr.gov/JOBS/jobs.html
Includes position openings in academic, public, and special library environments.

United Nations Human Resources.
Openings around the world with the United Nations. Library positions are found under Information Management Occupational Group.
The University of North Carolina
https://uncjobs.northcarolina.edu/applicants/jsp/shared/Welcome_css.jsp
Search each of the 17 institutions – cannot narrow search by occupation from this site, must go to each institution’s site.

USAJOBS. http://jobsearch.usajobs.gov
U.S. federal government positions around the world. Keyword search with "librarian" will bring up library and archive related positions.