Question 5.6.6 – Are there aggregated data of EPP faculty’s scholarly work for the past three years?

As noted in the Section 5 of the Institutional Report, EPP faculty enter documentation of their scholarly work in Sedona, the University’s data system for capturing presentations, publications, grants, and service activities. Aggregated reports from Sedona are available by College and through ad hoc report requests to the Office of Institutional Research, for the EPP at ECU.

The following tables document aggregated data for all EPP faculty utilizing Sedona for 2012-13, 2013-14, and 2014-15 (incomplete; data not due until March 1, 2015). The categories in Sedona are defined in the ECU Sedona Directory, maintained by the ECU Office of Faculty Excellence. Faculty training in the use of Sedona is also provided by the Office of Faculty Excellence.

In 2012-2013, 208 of 265 ECU EPP faculty + non-faculty had active Sedona profiles and made contributions in the following areas:
