Course page;

Intro to Co-Teaching;

Foundations Training

READ THIS FIRST: Co-Teaching Foundations Training Introduction

Welcome to Co-Teaching Foundations Training. Inside this folder you will find a powerpoint titled “Welcome to Co-Teaching”, a video titled “Co-Teaching 101”, and an article titled “Smarter Student Teaching”. Please review all three for background information on Co-Teaching. Next read the introduction to Foundation Training document that includes step by step instructions for completing Foundations Training.

Best Practices in Co-Teaching

In this learning module you will find a powerpoint, a video clip and a document for note-taking.

Preview the objectives of the Co-Teaching Foundations Training on the powerpoint.

Listen to the video clip “Traditional vs Co-Teaching Model”.

Complete the assignment using the “Roles of Participants in the Traid” document and post a comment on the blog titled “Traditional vs Co-Teaching”.

Short History of Co-Teaching and Evolution at ECU

Open this learning module to view a powerpoint on the history of Co-Teaching and then complete the Assessment on Best Practices and the History of Co-Teaching. Remember to read the notes on the powerpoint slides for additional information and explanations.

Student Achievement Findings from St. Cloud State University

In this learning module you will find a powerpoint, research articles, and an assessment. View the powerpoint on Co-Teaching research findings from St. Cloud State University. Read a research article on Co-Teaching and then complete the Assessment.

Learning Module 1 – Co-Teaching Strategies

The seven Co-Teaching Strategies, patterned after Marilyn Friend's coaching model, include (1) One Teach, One Observe (2) One Teach, One Assist (3) Station Teaching (4) Parallel Teaching (5) Supplemental Teaching (6) Alternative/Differentiated Teaching (7) Team Teaching. Learning Module 1 highlights the first two Co-Teaching strategies. After viewing the two powerpoints, complete Assignment 1.
Delving into the intro;

Learning Modules;

Learning Module 1 - Co-Teaching Strategies
The seven Co-Teaching Strategies, patterned after Marilyn Friend’s co-teaching model, include (1) One Teach, One Observe (2) One Teach, One Assist (3) Station Teaching (4) Parallel Teaching (5) Supplemental Teaching (6) Alternative/Differentiated Teaching (7) Team Teaching. Learning Module 1 highlights the first two Co-Teaching strategies. After viewing the two powerpoints, complete Assignment 1.

Learning Module 2 - Co-Teaching Strategies
Learning Module 2 highlights the Co-Teaching strategies of “Station Teaching” and “Parallel Teaching”. After reviewing each of the powerpoints, complete Assignment 2 by planning a lesson either utilizing the “Station Teaching” or “Parallel Teaching” strategy.

Learning Module 3 - Co-Teaching Strategies
Learning Module 3 highlights the Co-Teaching strategies, “Supplemental Teaching” and “Alternative (Differentiated) Teaching”. After viewing the powerpoints complete Assignment 3 by planning a lesson utilizing either the supplemental or alternative teaching strategy.

Learning Module 4 - Co-Teaching Strategies
Learning Module 4 highlights the last Co-Teaching Strategy, Team Teaching. No assignment is required for the team teaching strategy.

Learning Module 5 - Co-Teaching Strategies
Module 5 completes an introduction to all seven Co-Teaching strategies. View the summary powerpoint and review the document of definitions and examples of the Co-Teaching strategies. Read the journal article by Cook & Friend; (1995) Co-Teaching: Guidelines for creating effective practices. Focus on Exceptional Children. 28(3) 136-140. Lastly, complete the Strategies Assessment.

Learning Module 6 - Co-Planning
The success of Co-Teaching in the internship depends on Co-Planning between the clinical teacher and intern(s) to meet the needs of all students in the classroom. Review the resources in Module 6 for planning tips, weekly lesson plan templates for elementary and secondary grades, and strategies for expanding time for planning.
Learning Module Example;

Strategies and Benefits;

Looking at Benefits;