

Segregation, Integration, Discrimination: The Historic Record of the Interaction among Different Races at East Carolina University.”

Laura M.(Leary ) Elliot, First African American to graduate with bachelor’s Degree from East Carolina

( Photo of LML Elliot by Nicholas Thiipen East Carolinian. )

In an attempt to present an unvarnished view of the documented history of the interactions between races at ECU, letting such primary documents as board minutes, correspondence, newspaper articles, and photographs speak for themselves. It is not an attempt to present the history of African Americans or any other race, but to present the documented record of the interactions of different races as that exists in our collections.

August 10, 2009 through January 29, 2010
on the 4th floor of Joyner Library