How to Find Rare Books in the Classic Catalog

1. Step 1: Access the Catalog
   - Go to the Classic Catalog by clicking the “Search the Catalog” link.
   - You can also access the Classic Catalog from the Joyner Library homepage by using the “Search the Classic Catalog” link.

2. Step 2: Limit Your Search
   - From the sub-collection drop down list, select the sub-collection in which you are interested.
   - Rare Book sub-collections found in the Manuscripts and Rare Books Department include:
     * Hoover
     * Rare Books
     * Schlobin Fantasy
     * Stuart Wright
Step 3: Complete Your Search
- Search by keyword, author, title, journal title, subject, series, ISBN/ISSN, and/or publisher by typing search terms in the corresponding text boxes.
- Your search will be limited to the sub-collection you chose.
- To see all materials in the selected sub-collection, leave the search fields blank.

Step 4: View Your Results
- Click on the title to view a more complete listing of the item, including the call number.
- Rare books are non-circulating. To view our collections, visit the Manuscripts and Rare Books Search Desk on the 4th Floor of Joyner Library.
- For help, please call the Manuscripts and Rare Books Department at (252) 328-6671.
