

The Teaching Resources Center

ABOUT THE TEACHING RESOURCES CENTER

The Teaching Resources Center (TRC) is committed to providing exceptional services and resources to the students of East Carolina University's teacher education program and to the professional educators of eastern North Carolina. Located on the second floor of Joyner Library, the TRC offers a welcoming atmosphere for all students, faculty, staff and community members.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Teaching Resources Center is to facilitate teaching and learning initiatives by providing resources and services to educators of all levels.

OUR GOAL

The goal of the TRC is to serve as a model resource center by:

- Developing and maintaining a Birth through 12th grade collection
- Conducting reference and instruction
- Providing outreach to area schools and educators
- Supporting educators with technology and equipment in the Enhancing Teachers' Classrooms (ETC) room.

HELPING EDUCATORS GROW

EDUCATOR LIBRARY CARD

The educator library card is available free to eastern North Carolina K-12 educators. Educators can obtain a library card at the service desks located in the Teaching Resources Center and Music Library.

ENHANCING TEACHERS' CLASSROOMS (ETC) ROOM

The ETC Room is designated for pre-service teachers and area educators to assist them in creating and producing quality lesson units. The room houses a laminator, an Ellison die cut center with more than 500 patterns, an artwaxer, a lightbox, a comb binding machine, a Badge-A-Minit button maker and cutter, office supplies and computer workstations with numerous educational software installations and resources. Additions to the room are ongoing.

MATERIALS REQUEST DELIVERY SERVICES

Educators within participating K-12 schools in eastern North Carolina can request Joyner Library materials through their school media coordinators. Requests are filled by the Interlibrary Loan Department at Joyner Library and sent through the State Courier System or mail system, for delivery to the designated school library.
