

Newbery Award Winners Joyner Library's Teaching Resources Center

The Newbery Medal was named for eighteenth-century British bookseller John Newbery. It is awarded annually by the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association, to the author of the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children.

Please ask someone at the Teaching Resources Service Desk if you need any assistance. Titles in the Teaching Resources Center are cataloged with Dewey call numbers and are preceded by Curric.
