Not enrolled in Summer Session, but still need housing? Come live the Pirate's Life!

Are you a currently enrolled student who is completing an internship, job searching, completing course work, working in town over the summer, and in need of summer housing? Campus Living will offer currently enrolled students

Students requesting temporary housing must complete a Temporary Housing Contract. The rate per night is $17.00 per night. There is a two week minimum requirement to obtain temporary housing. For two to three week assignments, payment is due in full upon check in. Students needing to stay three or more weeks on campus will be required to pay up to the first three weeks upon arrival and the remaining balance is due no later than the end of the third week of the temporary assignment. A $300 Pirate Bucks declining balance is required (minimum) for anyone staying on campus for three or more weeks, or you may select one of the Summer Session Plans. Please feel free to contact Campus Living at 252-328-4663 if you have questions about temporary summer housing.
