Community Member Agreement

Why should I choose to participate?
Students learn a lot and build strong bonds during the short three days while participating in Camp P.I.R.A.T.E.S. The living-learning community will allow students who attend camp to remain connected and to build on the foundation already established. Continued class meetings and events throughout the semester will allow for discussion of transition issues throughout the first year.

Through the Camp P.I.R.A.T.E.S. LLC, you will have opportunity to connect with students, faculty, and staff who all have an interest in helping you succeed. If that’s not enough, you will live in Gateway Residence Hall, the newest residence hall on campus!

Benefits of participation:
- Development of friendships in a positive, team-oriented environment
- Opportunity to participate in activities specifically designed for new students that will help connect students to campus resources and develop leadership skills.
- Leadership opportunities
- Notification of campus programs and activities that focus on social and academic engagement
- Receive support for the academic, social, and emotional changes that may occur in the transition from high school to ECU.
- Build a foundation for a successful college experience.

Responsibilities of the LLC participant:
- Take classes together. Your schedule should be designed to include these classes so keep them in mind while registering for other classes. Please do not drop these courses from your schedule. Classes will include:
  - COAD 1000-Freshman Seminar course (Student Development and Learning in Higher Education), which will meet on Monday and Wednesday from 4:00-4:50pm.
  - KINE 1000-Lifetime Physical Activity and Fitness Laboratory (counts for the Exercise and Sports Science Foundations Curriculum Requirement), which will meet on Tuesday and Thursday from 11:00-11:50am.
  - and English 1100 in the spring (unless you have received class credit previously)
- Participate in fall and spring specialized programming designed for the Camp P.I.R.A.T.E.S. LLC. Programming may include reunion events, community service events, and other special opportunities. These programs are designed to connect students to ECU and campus resources and to develop leadership skills.
- Abide by the ECU Student Code of Conduct (http://www.ecu.edu/PRR/11/30/01)
- Be an active participant in the LLC.

Student Behavior
I have read the East Carolina University Student Code of Conduct and the Campus Living polices. I understand that I am responsible for abiding by the policies it contains. I understand that if I am found in violation of standards of the Student Code of Conduct and/or Campus Living policies I will be subject to consequences that may range from a warning to probation or suspension to expulsion, as well as the possible removal from the residence halls and/or my Living-Learning Community.
Room Assignment
Per the Campus Living Housing Contract Section IV part E, I understand the University may alter my room assignment, if necessary, for any reason. Student conduct or a conflict with another community member, may require a new living space. In some instances this may mean moving out of my Living-Learning Community. If I receive a new room assignment that is no longer in my Living Learning Community, I understand I may no longer be allowed to participate with the LLC. If I decide I no longer want to participate as a member of the LLC or if the LLC Faculty/Academic leader decides that I am no longer allowed to participate as a member of the LLC, I understand I may be removed from the Hall and receive a new room assignment in a different Hall. I further understand moving to a new living space may incur additional fees, dependent on the hall and/or room costs.

Communication Among University Officials
I give my written consent to Campus Living, the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, and other relevant University offices to release information to and maintain open lines of communication with, the Living Learning Community partner(s) for which I am a part of, concerning any violation of the Student Code of Conduct, Campus Living policy, and/or any behaviors that can impede on my educational interests.

Returning to the LLC
Acceptance to return to my Living-Learning Community for the following academic year is contingent on the LLC program coordinator’s approval and available space.

Failure to complete any of the above responsibilities will result in the following:
1st Offense – Verbal warning/notification communicated with student
2nd Offense – Written warning/notification communicated with student
3rd Offense – Student removed from program.

Depending on the nature of the offense, a student may be immediately removed from the program.

By choosing to live in the Camp P.I.R.A.T.E.S. LLC, I am agreeing to be an active participant and my objective is to join the community to enhance my college experience. I understand and accept the above conditions. I also understand that, should this not meet my expectations, I will be allowed to move from the community at any time. I also understand that my decision to leave the community will result in my having to work with housing to locate separate residential space on campus.

I have read and fully understand the Community Member Agreement. I agree to abide by all regulations and policies set forth in these documents. I understand that any violations of any of these regulations and policies will result in severe consequences for the organization and/or the individual involved including but not limited to dismissal from the program.

I understand this is effective from the date signed through the 2017-2018 academic year.
