

Pirate MAP

Maintaining Alliances and Partnerships
Volume 1, Issue I
Fall 2004

Inside This Issue:

|                                |   |
|--------------------------------|---|
| Companies Recognized .....     | 1 |
| Did you know? .....            | 1 |
| From Student to Employer ..... | 1 |
| Upcoming Career Fairs .....    | 1 |
| SPD Staff .....                | 2 |

Student Professional Development

Location
701 E. Fifth Street
328-6050
www.ecu.edu/e3careers/

Hours
M-F, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Need Directions?
Please visit this address:
www.ecu.edu/e3careers/aboutus.directionstocampus.

Companies Recognized for Contribution

BB&T and Beazer Homes were recognized for sponsoring a portion of the Fall 2004 Career Fair at ECU. Chancellor St Ballard presented plaques of appreciation to Pam Angle from BB&T and Denise Fikes from Beazer Homes. Over 2,500 students and 130 employers attended the Career Fair.

Did you know?

Your company can interview students on campus in the Student Professional Development offices. Visit www.ecu.edu/e3careers/oncampusinterviewform.asp for a registration form, or call 328-6050 for more info.

From Student To Employer Nicole Collier

Nicole Brown Collier
ECU Student 2003
BSBA, 2000
MBA, 2003

Nicole Collier came to ECU to interview students for an analyst position with the agency for which she now works, U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO). Nicole obtained her undergraduate degree in Finance at ECU in December of Nicole Collier interviews Sarah Baker for an opportunity with the GAO, Nov. 2004.

2000 and her masters in Business Administration in December of 2003. Now, less than a year later Nicole is on the opposite side of the table in one of SPD's interview rooms, interviewing MBA graduates for opportunities with the GAO.

Looking to fill a part-time position? A full-time position? Looking to become involved in upcoming Career Fairs? Want to find the ideal person for your internship?

Contact Student Professional Development at ECU for more information:

www.ecu.edu/e3careers/foremployers.overview.asp

East Carolina University is committed to equality of educational opportunity and does not discriminate against applicants, students, or employers based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, sexual orientation, or disability. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer, which accommodates the needs of individuals with disabilities.

Upcoming Career Fairs

Industrial Technology and Computer Science Career Fair
Location TBA
February 16, 2005, 10am-2pm.

College of Business Career Fair
Bate Building
February 23, 2005, 10am-2pm

College of Education Career Fair
Murphy Center
February 25, 2005, 9am-12pm

Science Fields Career Fair
Science & Technology Building
March 3, 2005, 10am-2pm

Schools of Allied Health & Nursing Career Fair
Belk Building
March 3, 2005, 10am-2pm

College of Human Ecology Career Fair
Rivers Building
March 9, 2005, 10am-2pm

Interested in becoming involved in one or more of these career fairs?
Online registration is offered at <http://www.ecu.edu/e3careers/aboutus.careerfairs.asp>
Please call (252) 328-6050 for further information.

STUDENT PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT STAFF

Student Professional Development at East Carolina University is eager to facilitate employer-student interaction by providing a commitment to excellence and a framework of flexibility. Many opportunities exist for employers to connect with well-prepared and well-qualified ECU students, including: e-recruiting, cooperative education, internships, full/part-time positions, and Career Fairs.

Suzanne Martin

Assistant Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
(252) 328-6050
martinsu@mail.ecu.edu

The Thomas Harriot College of Arts and Sciences offers 20 diverse programs of study. Yet, arts and sciences students have in common a breadth and depth of knowledge and ability that comes from undertaking a challenging course of study. They thrive only by learning how to reason, analyze, read for content and write well. The skills and talents of a liberal arts and sciences major transfer easily into countless professions.

Donna Wasiczko

Liaison to Thomas Harriot College of Arts and Sciences
(252) 328-6050
wasiczkod@mail.ecu.edu

The College of Business offers BSBA degrees in accounting, decision sciences, finance, management, and marketing as well as a five-year BSA/MSA, a stand-alone MSA program in professional accounting, and an MBA. Our students have a strong work ethic and can “hit the ground running.” Please let me know how I can assist you with recruiting any of our Business students or alumni.

Brian Newton

Liaison to College of Business
(252) 328-6050
newtonf@mail.ecu.edu

The College of Fine Arts and Communication provides a well-trained, prepared, motivated workforce through its four schools including the Schools of Art and Design, Communication, Music, and Theatre and Dance. From performing arts to public relations, event planning, production, graphic design, and visual, audible and written art, we are sure to fill a need you have.

Jim McAtee

Liaison to College of Fine Arts and Communication
(252) 328-6050
mcateej@mail.ecu.edu

The College of Health & Human Performance prepares well-rounded individuals in the areas of Exercise Science, Health Education, and Recreation. These outstanding students are equipped to handle the challenges of working in a variety of health-related fields and the public sector.

Larry Donley

Liaison to College of Health and Human Performance
(252) 328-6050
donleyl@mail.ecu.edu

ECU’s College of Education develops knowledgeable, creative young professionals. ECU’s education program prepares some of the nation’s best and brightest teachers with hands-on classroom experience. ECU’s College of Human Ecology develops some of the nation’s finest student talent within Child Development and Family Relations, Criminal Justice, Interior Design and Merchandising, Nutrition and Hospitality Management, and Social Work.

Catrina Davis

Liaison to College of Education and College of Human Ecology
(252) 328-6050
davisca@mail.ecu.edu

East Carolina University is a great place to recruit technology students. We have strong programs in Manufacturing, Industrial Distribution and Logistics, Sales, Safety, Urban Planning, Construction Management, and Computer Science. Students in this college come from all over the nation (and world) and graduate in December, May, and July. I encourage you to go to <http://www.ecu.edu/aa/catalogs/> to learn more about the programs at ECU.

Bruce Maxwell

Liaison for College of Technology and Computer Science
(252) 328-6050
maxwellb@mail.ecu.edu

The students who graduate from the Allied Health and Nursing programs at East Carolina University are not only prepared academically, but also possess practical application skills. Our students have gained valuable work experience through various internships and clinicals they must complete prior to graduation. They are prepared to be innovators and make a positive impact on the healthcare field in whatever position they seek to fill.

Kristen Brooks

Liaison for School of Allied Health Sciences, School of Nursing, and Brody School of Medicine
(252) 328-6050
brookskr@mail.ecu.edu