Country Requests: In the area provided below, list at least five countries you would like to represent and one favored region of the world. (Example regions being The Middle East, Western Europe, Latin America, Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe.) If you are bringing a large delegation you may choose more than five countries. Your assignments in committees will be based on how many people you want in each committee and the countries or region you select. For example, if you select two spaces in Security Council, one in the GA, and Crisis then you select Syria, Colombia, and Russia as three of your countries and Eastern Europe as your region. Your assignment could be something along the lines of Syria on Crisis, Security Council One, and GA, as well as representing Bulgaria on Security Council Two. Please note that wherever possible, we allocate all spaces available to one school so that students have an easier time preparing for the conference. This means that if you get France as your first choice and you bring a large number of delegates, your school will most likely represent France on all available committees.
