

Outstanding Senior Nomination
The Department of Psychology
East Carolina University

Outstanding Senior Award. The ECU Student Government Association Outstanding Senior Award is given to an outstanding senior in each of the departments and schools. The recipient receives a plaque from the ECU SGA, which is presented at the Psychology Graduate Recognition Ceremony. Students are nominated by members of the faculty of the Department of Psychology.

I. Nominee : _____ Banner ID _____

Contact Numbers: Home (_____) _____ Cell (_____) _____

ECU E-mail Address: _____ Faculty Nominator _____

Overall ECU GPA as of 1-1-09 _____ (Attach a Banner printout of the unofficial ECU transcript.)

II. Nomination Information (use reverse side as needed).

A. Explain why you believe this student should be chosen as the Outstanding Senior.

B. List organizations in which the student has participated during the college experience, and include any offices held. List honors, awards, and/or recognitions the student has received.

C. Briefly describe the student's professional goals related to psychology.

Nominator's Signature

Date

Return this nomination form and supporting documents by March 15, 2009, to the Faculty Development and Awards Committee, attention of Professor Michael B. Brown, Department of Psychology.

The Outstanding Senior Recipient will be notified by May 1, 2009.