Pirates Aboard!
Admitted Student Day

Pirates Aboard! Admitted Student Day is geared specifically toward admitted students and their families. Admitted students and their guests will participate in a full day of sessions, including time spent with faculty, advisors, and students from their intended major; information sessions from financial aid, housing, dining, and student life; campus tours; and an opportunity to visit the different styles of residence halls. Additional information specific to transfer students will be available as well. Learn more at: ecu.edu/admissions/piratesaboard

Pirates Aboard! is for admitted students and takes place Saturday, April 2, from 8:00am to 4:00pm; Minges Coliseum (Williams Arena) on ECU’s Campus in Greenville, NC.

Junior Days

The Office of Undergraduate Admissions would like to invite all of your juniors to register to attend a series of events designed with a particular academic focus. Junior Days at East Carolina University provide an opportunity for students and their families to meet professors in their major, hear from current students, and tour the school’s facilities. New events will be added regularly to the list of available programs: ecu.edu/admissions/juniordaysatecu.cfm.

Monday, March 21, from 9:00am-2:30pm – College of Fine Arts and Communications
Check-in takes place in Harvey Hall at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. Mini events planned for each of the schools (Art and Design, Communications, Theater and Dance, and Music).

Friday, April 22, from 10am-4pm – College of Engineering and Technology
Check-in takes place in Whichard 106. Participants will meet with an admissions representative for the morning information session. In the afternoon, participants will visit the College of Engineering and Technology to tour their facilities.

Admitted Student Guidebooks

Do your admitted seniors have questions about their next steps to becoming a Pirate? If so, please have them visit our Admitted Student Guide, and the Admitted Freshman Checklist to view a complete list of items that they will need to complete prior to attending ECU in the fall.

Student Connections

All high school juniors are encouraged to create an online Admissions Portal account at www.ecu.edu/admissions. This portal is designed to help students personalize their admissions experience. Once created, students can: apply for admission; track their admission status; receive information pertaining to their specific academic interests; and sign up for tours and other events.

Pirates in Your Town

ECU is hosting several regional events for students in North Carolina who have been admitted into the university. Pirates in Your Town events will be held in Raleigh, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Wilmington, and Charlotte. Admissions counselors will be hosting these events, along with a representative from Campus Dining and Housing. Participants learn about academic opportunities available to ECU students, the enrollment process, financial aid, housing options, and the significance of visiting campus. Visit ecu.edu/admissions/piratesinyourtown.cfm for registration info.
