SOUTHEASTERN REGIONAL SEMINAR IN AFRICAN STUDIES (SERSAS)

Africa and the Environment

FALL 2008

North Carolina State University

Withers Hall, Room 140

26 - 27 September 2008
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The local SERSAS Organizing Group (Drs. Craig C. Brookins, Owen Kalinga, Risa Ellovich, and Ken Vickery) would like to thank Dr. Bailan Li, Vice-Provost for International Affairs, and Dr Jeff Braden, Interim Dean of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, for the financial assistance provided for the reception on Friday, September 26, and the luncheon on Saturday, September 27.

The group also expresses gratitude to Dr. Jonathan Ocko (Head of History Department) and to Dr. David Zonderman (Associate Head), for their general support. Finally, we would like to acknowledge the invaluable role of Susan Book and Courtney Hamilton of the History Office, without whom the arrangements for the conference would not have proceeded so smoothly.
FRIDAY: 26 SEPTEMBER
Atrium, 1911 Building (next to Withers Hall)

6:30-9:30 pm: Reception

SATURDAY: 27 SEPTEMBER
Withers Hall, Room 140

8:30- 9:00 am: Registration (tea, coffee)
9:00-9:15 am: Official welcome (CHASS Dean’s Office)

Session 1: 9:15-10:30 am
Environmental Challenges and Artistic Expression in Africa

Chair and Discussant: Kenneth Wilburn, East Carolina University

Leah Lyons, Middle Tennessee State University, Can Africa Be Funny?: Humor in Francophone African Cinema

Amy Schwartzott, University of Florida, Urban Mozambican Arts: Recycled Materials as Media of Contemporary Expression

Session 2: 10:40-12:10 am
Environmental Connections in African History

Chair and Discussant: Jeffery Rich, Middle Tennessee State University

David Decker, University of South Carolina – Sumter, El-Obeid, 1820-1885: A Study of the Intra-and Inter-Urban Development of a Sudanese Urban Complex

Gary Marquardt, Virginia Commonwealth University, Colonial Policy and Indigenous Management: Connections between Cattle Disease, Environment, and the Origins of the Langeberg Rebellion in South Africa, c. 1896-1898

Lunch and business meeting 12:15-1:30
Session 3: 1:45-3:15pm
Tourism and Hunting in Africa

Chair and Discussant: Owen J.M. Kalinga, North Carolina State University

Scott Brunger, Maryville College, Local Initiative in Shaping Sustainable Ecotourism in the Dogon Region of Mali

Jeremy Rich, Middle Tennessee State University, Kings of the Gun: Guns, Animals, and Colonialism in Southern Gabon, ca. 1890-1940

Session 4: 3:30-5:00pm
Science and the Environment in Contemporary Africa

Chair and Discussant: Mario Azevedo, Jackson State University

Mario Azevedo, Jackson State University, Diabetes and Obesity in Sub-Saharan Africa

Jacqueline Maximilian, University of Idaho, Towards Sustainable Harvesting of Africa’s Largest Medicinal Plant Export (Prunus africanus): A Case Study in Tanzania

Myralyn O.A. Narrey, University of California Los Angeles, Climate and Women’s Health in Sub-Saharan Africa