You've found treasure! Pirate Perks are special offers and discounts especially for employees of East Carolina University. Find an up-to-date list of all area businesses and services offering discounts on the East Carolina University website at: http://www.ecu.edu/cs-admin/staffsenate/pirateperks.

This annual publication offers a detailed statistical guide to East Carolina University. It includes information such as ECU history, administration, accreditations, degrees, faculty/staff, financial aid, etc. To view the ECU Fact Book website: http://www.ecu.edu/ipre/factbook.htm. A printed version is also available at the Joyner Reference Desk.

Something is always going on at East Carolina University. The ECU News Bureau, The East Carolinian, and University Health Systems News and Information help you stay up to date with all of the news and events. To access this information go to the ECU News and Events website: http://www.ecu.edu/cs-ecu/news_events.cfm.

A variety of benefits are available to permanent employees of East Carolina University who are employed at least 30 hours per week. Benefits include health benefits, retirement options, a flexible spending account, a tuition waiver policy, etc. To learn more go to: http://www.ecu.edu/cs-admin/hr/Benefits.cfm.

Memberships for the Student Recreation Center are available to be purchased on an annual, semester, or summer basis. Membership includes the use of all SRC facilities, but additional costs are assessed for Aerobics, Lifestyle Enhancement Programs, Climbing and Adventure trips and equipment rental. To learn more go to: http://www.ecu.edu/cs-studentlife/crw.

The primary mission of ECU Athletics is to bring positive recognition to ECU through a program built on concepts such as excellence, integrity and enthusiasm. The Athletics program at ECU is comprised of 20 varsity sports, 10 men’s and 10 women’s. To learn more go to: http://ecupirates.cstv.com.