About HRIS

Human Resources Information Systems (HRIS) is responsible for managing the Banner Human Resources module and supporting the information needs of Human Resources. We collaborate to adjust Banner design and improve business processes, training, documentation and support. We develop automation projects to improve efficiency and data integrity, and accommodate emerging data requirements. In addition, we manage ODS reporting for HR, consult with users to explain system elements and prepare reports.