1995

DAVID EDWARD REID III of Hilton Head, S.C., is a market executive with RBC Centura Bank, received one of the company’s annual Leo Awards. JULIAN HOLT KORNEGAY of Loulsburg, Franklin County Library system director, participated in the Oxford Round Table at the University of Oxford’s Pembroke College.

DR. PHILIP MICHAEL BROWN JR. of Wilmington has relocated to a private vascular surgery practice, Wilmington Health Associates. CARL JAMESON REES of Greenville is working with the city’s West Greenville redevelopment plan. He is married to MELISSA JANE DUVALL REES ’90, ’02, a lecturer in ECU’s child development program.

DR. JUDITH LAWRENCE OUTTEN is practicing community psychiatry in Phoenix and has completed a children’s book and a gospel CD. RABIAH MARIAM BARODOFSKY HODGES of Manetto is master weaver for the studio Endless Possibilities. BRANDON JAMES MacGILLIS of Washington, D.C. is director of communications for the National Environmental Trust.

DR. PATRIC REEVERETTE KAVANAUGH of Chapel Hill is a physician with Triangle Family Practice, Duke University Affiliated Physicians, in Durham. He and wife Alison became first-time parents when Ella Grace was born last August. DAVID WILLIAM REichelT of Chubbuck, Idaho, sports director for KPV1-TV, is the radio voice for Idaho State University.

KEVIN SCOTT HALL of Des Moines, Iowa, is sports director and anchor for KDSM Fox 17 in Des Moines and KFXA Fox 28/40 and KGAN CBS 2 in Cedar Rapids. DOROTHY JAYE WEEKS HUGHES of Bethel and husband LEON WESLEY HUGHES JR. ’03 announce the birth of their first child, Bailey Jayne, who arrived March 14. STEPHEN ROBERT BRODIE is the new project manager at the corporate office of WIMCO Corp. in Washington. LINDSEY ALLEN CRISP, a CPA, was named president and chief operating officer of Carver Machine Works Inc. in Washington, N.C. FRANCES LOUISE CREECH PRICE ’94, ’00 and WALTER LOUIS PRICE ’87 of Nashville welcomed baby daughter Lindsey Victoria on Jan. 12.

TRACY DIANE PROCTOR DANIELS and husband Eric of Rocky Mount announce the birth of daughter Elizabeth Faye on Feb. 2.

CHERYLE FAY NABERHAUS of Bonita Springs, Fla., performed as principal horn in Mahler’s Symphony No. 3 with the Southwest Florida Symphony in Fort Myers. HEIDI REBECCA NICHOLS POPE ’94, ’00 of Wilson is working at Barton College as director of alumni programs and the annual fund.

KAREN ELIZABETH CURTIS LESLIE of Abbeville, S.C., is a part-time family physician at Due West Family Medicine.

DR. ERIK ALEXANDER MARRING of Raleigh is an attending emergency physician for Duke Health of Raleigh Hospital. He and wife Christina have three children, Kayla, Jake and Abby.

DR. CRAIG STEPHEN SELF of Chesapeake, Va., is a staff ophthalmologist at the Naval Medical Center in Portsmouth.

ROBERT SAMUEL “SAM” MATHENY JR. of Zebulon is general manager of News Over Wireless/Capitol Broadcasting Company New Media, based in Raleigh. He is married to TAMARA ABOITT MATHENY ’94. STANTON EDWARD BLAKESLEE of Greenville is founding principal of Eye Integrated Communications.

KEVIN EUGENE VARNER of Greensboro was a featured actor with the N.C. Shakespeare Festival last season. Kevin completed Harvard University’s MFA program in acting at the American Repertory Theatre in Cambridge. DONNA PAIGE BOYKIN HILL of Winterville is principal at Greenville’s Elmhurst Elementary School.

JULIAN HOLT KORNEGAY of Loulsburg, Franklin County Library system director, participated in the Oxford Round Table at the University of Oxford’s Pembroke College.

THOMAS JAMES “TOM” SPAULDING JR. of Castle Rock, Colo., is founder and CEO of Leader’s Challenge. RENEE ELAINE CUNDIFF NAUFUL of Sunrise, Fla. and husband Jeff welcomed their second child, Ciara Catherine, on Feb. 8. JAMES WINFIELD “JIM” PARKER of Greenville has joined the estimating staff at WIMCO Corp.

CARRIE LEE BELL of Winterville, former news anchor at WNCT-TV, Greenville, is the author of After The Storm and Mississippi Blue, novels featuring African-American women overcoming domestic and personal difficulties.

AMY LEE HINSON of Wilmington, a music teacher at Virgo Middle School, has earned National Board Certification in music. She plays oboe and English horn with the Wilmington Symphony.

DOROTHY JAYE WEEKS HUGHES of Bethel and husband LEON WESLEY HUGHES JR. ’03 announce the birth of their first child, Bailey Jayne, who arrived March 14. STEPHEN ROBERT BRODIE is the new project manager at the corporate office of WIMCO Corp. in Washington. LINDSEY ALLEN CRISP, a CPA, was named president and chief operating officer of Carver Machine Works Inc. in Washington, N.C. FRANCES LOUISE CREECH PRICE ’94, ’00 and WALTER LOUIS PRICE ’87 of Nashville welcomed baby daughter Lindsey Victoria on Jan. 12.

TRACY DIANE PROCTOR DANIELS and husband Eric of Rocky Mount announce the birth of daughter Elizabeth Faye on Feb. 2.

CHERYLE FAY NABERHAUS of Bonita Springs, Fla., performed as principal horn in Mahler’s Symphony No. 3 with the Southwest Florida Symphony in Fort Myers. HEIDI REBECCA NICHOLS POPE ’94, ’00 of Wilson is working at Barton College as director of alumni programs and the annual fund.

KAREN ELIZABETH CURTIS LESLIE of Abbeville, S.C., is a part-time family physician at Due West Family Medicine.

DR. ERIK ALEXANDER MARRING of Raleigh is an attending emergency physician for Duke Health of Raleigh Hospital. He and wife Christina have three children, Kayla, Jake and Abby.

DR. CRAIG STEPHEN SELF of Chesapeake, Va., is a staff ophthalmologist at the Naval Medical Center in Portsmouth.

ROBERT SAMUEL “SAM” MATHENY JR. of Zebulon is general manager of News Over Wireless/Capitol Broadcasting Company New Media, based in Raleigh. He is married to TAMARA ABOITT MATHENY ’94. STANTON EDWARD BLAKESLEE of Greenville is founding principal of Eye Integrated Communications.

KEVIN EUGENE VARNER of Greensboro was a featured actor with the N.C. Shakespeare Festival last season. Kevin completed Harvard University’s MFA program in acting at the American Repertory Theatre in Cambridge. DONNA PAIGE BOYKIN HILL of Winterville is principal at Greenville’s Elmhurst Elementary School.

JULIAN HOLT KORNEGAY of Loulsburg, Franklin County Library system director, participated in the Oxford Round Table at the University of Oxford’s Pembroke College.

THOMAS JAMES “TOM” SPAULDING JR. of Castle Rock, Colo., is founder and CEO of Leader’s Challenge. RENEE ELAINE CUNDIFF NAUFUL of Sunrise, Fla. and husband Jeff welcomed their second child, Ciara Catherine, on Feb. 8. JAMES WINFIELD “JIM” PARKER of Greenville has joined the estimating staff at WIMCO Corp.

CARRIE LEE BELL of Winterville, former news anchor at WNCT-TV, Greenville, is the author of After The Storm and Mississippi Blue, novels featuring African-American women overcoming domestic and personal difficulties.