2016-17 Residential Scholar Expectations

- You must remain enrolled as a full-time student for both the spring and fall semesters;

- Applicants for the 2016-17 academic year must reside in Gateway East and West Halls unless they are a member of a living learning community that resides in another residence hall;

- You must remain in good standing as a student at the university from selection as a Residential Scholar through the entire year of appointment;

- You must maintain a cumulative GPA equal or greater than 3.0;

- You must remain involved in a campus leadership position and/or hall government in the building in which you reside;

- You must perform a minimum of 20 hours community service each semester. These hours are to be reported and verified through the Volunteer and Service Learning Center;

- You must attend all of the monthly Residential Scholar dinners which will be held one Sunday a month starting in August, 2016;

- Attendance at a one-day planning retreat prior to the start of the Fall Semester in August, 2016 is mandatory;

- All Residential Scholars will partake in two group community service undertakings during the academic year;

- Failure to attend all of the planned events or meet the service and leadership expectations during the Fall semester will result in removal from the Residential Scholars for the Spring semester;

- You must attend one of the two community service trips scheduled over the Fall and Spring Breaks. These trips are subsidized by Campus Living.