ECU CareerNET Student/Alumni Disclaimer

Registering with the East Carolina University Career Center and CareerNET will enable you to:

- Upload and store your resume and other materials
- Search posted online internship and job announcements
- Search the Career Center career development programs and events (i.e. Career Fairs, Etiquette Dinners, Professional Development opportunities etc.)
- Sign up for on-campus interviews
- Allow your profile and resume to be viewed by the Career Center staff and registered employers

By utilizing ECU CareerNET, I understand:

- The Career Center may conduct searches on student profiles to inform students of professional development or employment opportunities through email communications.
- The Career Center may release my profile information (name, telephone, email, major, and graduation date) to registered employers to assist in relevant recruiting purposes.
- Student profile data may also be included in reports used for evaluation of employment and professional development activities, as well as reports developed for institutional studies.

When utilizing ECU CareerNET, I also understand:

- That it is my responsibility to maintain and update my account information and resume and that all information presented is accurate and honest.
- The Career Center may remove/inactivate my account from the system in cases of misconduct, misrepresentation, account inactivity, or by direct student request.
- The presence of any internship or job announcement does not indicate an endorsement or recommendation by East Carolina University or The Career Center.
- Students and alumni are responsible for all necessary precautions when interviewing for or accepting positions listed on this website, and users are responsible for verifying the credentials and integrity of an organization.
