Dr. Feldbush address the meeting concerning his position on the distribution of research moneys. He gave his support to the committee and said that he expected the committee to fund only high quality proposals.

Description of action:
Rigsby distributed the results of the first round of numerical evaluations to the committee. Scores ranged from 1.88 (out of 5.00) to 4.78. The committee the broke up into its two subcommittees to review those results. Each subcommittee used the numerical evaluations to prepare a ranked list of the proposals it had reviewed.

Description of action:
The entire committee came together to discuss the two ranked lists. After much discussion, it was agreed that all proposals with scores of 4.00 and higher would be recommended for funding, all proposals with scores of 2.25 or higher would go forward for the second round of numerical evaluations, and proposals with scores lower than 2.25 would not be recommended for funding. As a result of this decision, 12 proposals were recommended for funding and 13 were retained for second round review.

Description of action:
Rigsby asked all committee members to turn in their round 2 numerical evaluations to the faculty senate by Monday, November 11, 1997.
