Committee: Student Scholarships, Fellowships, and Financial Aid

Meeting Date: 2/22/99

Person Presiding: Philip Rothman

Actions of Meeting:
Four student appeals were heard by the committee.

One student appealed to the committee for 2 additional semesters through Spring 2000. The committee approved financial aid extension through Spring 2000.

One student appealed to the committee for extension of her financial aid. The committee approved financial aid for Summer and Fall of 1999. The committee stipulated that she must maintain a minimum of 2.5 GPA each semester in order to receive financial aid. If she is able to maintain this average, then the committee agreed to re-evaluate her situation for further consideration of financial aid extension in the Fall.

One student appealed to the committee for extension of her financial aid through Spring 2001. The committee approved this extension.

One student appealed to the committee for extension of her financial aid. The committee approved an extension for Summer and Fall 1999 with the option to re-evaluate for additional financial assistance in the future. The committee stipulated that she must maintain a 2.5 GPA each semester in order to receive financial aid. Concern was also expressed about her potential to meet the admission requirements for Business School and it was recommended that she meet with her advisor about this matter.

Meeting scheduled for Monday, 22 March 1999 at 4:00 p.m., Rawl Building, room #105.

Meeting adjourned.