Textbooks

Students are required to purchase their textbooks. The Student Stores, located in the Wright Building, is operated by the University for the convenience of students with its distributed funds going to the University's scholarship fund. All necessary supplies and books, both new and used, may be purchased in the Student Stores. The cost of books should range from $40 to $70 per course and may vary greatly depending on course requirements.

On-Line Registration

Admitted students who are not registered must access an on-line registration form from their advisor, registrar, and then pay fees. Undergraduate Students who have not been fully admitted must be cleared by the Admissions Office, secure an on-line registration form from their advisor, registrar, and then pay fees. Nonmatriculated Students must be officially admitted by the Admissions Office, secure an on-line registration form from their advisor, registrar, and then pay fees. Nonmatriculated Students are NOT OFFICIALLY ENROLLED until FEES ARE PAID.

Drop-Add (Change)

1. A schedule change period will continue to be scheduled at the beginning of each semester.

2. A student may drop-add with the approval of the advisor. The student must secure the signature of his or her advisor on the schedule change form and return it to the appropriate terminal operator for verifying.

3. Schedule change forms for graduate students will remain the same as in the past. (See Graduate Bulletin)

Policies on Tuition and Fees

All refunds will be subject to the above noted time limitations and will be based on the difference between the amount paid and the charge for the block of hours for which the student is officially registered.

Policies on Tuition and Fees

There will be no refunds available on private music lessons and/or remedial math after the first week of classes. (Free class days starting with the first official day of classes for the university.

A separate and extended refund policy exists for first-time federal Title IV financial aid recipients. Refer to financial aid materials or contact the Student Financial Aid Office.

To officially withdraw from the university, a student must give written notice to the Office of the Registrar.

Any refunds that a student becomes entitled to shall first be applied to outstanding financial obligations owed to the University.
