At any time if you feel unsafe on campus and would like an escort to and from class, residence hall, etc.--please call ECU Police at 252-328-6787. This is a FREE service!

If you think someone is following you or are concerned about stalking, contact ECU Cares (737-5555), the ECU police, or the Dean of Students Office to speak with the Title IX Investigator (252-328-9297) and discuss your options.

Please speak to a Victim’s Advocate if you feel like you are a survivor of sexual misconduct, stalking, harassment, or intimate partner violence at 252-737-1466. This person can help you navigate or determine what resources are best for you.
PROTECTING YOURSELF

• It is never okay for another person to violate your space, your body, or threaten you at any time. If this does happen please report to the proper persons in the previous slide.

• Here are some tips to help you feel safe on campus in case you find yourself in a situation where you feel scared or uncomfortable.
  • Walk in well-lit areas and with a group of people
  • Be aware of the blue light system and use when needed
  • Carry pepper spray at all times, both men and women need this protection. Be sure to buy every year as it does expire.
  • Have your cell phone available, ready to call 9-1-1.
  • Attend a RAD class through ECU Police (for men and women) to help feel empowered so that if there was an attack, you would know what to do in that situation.
